

ALTAR OF CHURCH AT CHIMAYO, NEW MEXICO

The Altar decorations at Chimayo are typical of the early primitive art of the Santeros of New Mexico. The Chapel has long been a mecca for those seeking miracle cures in the mud of a spring over which the Chapel was built.

Color Photo by Geo. W. Thompson

Petty

Published by Petty Studios, Old Town Plaza, Albuquerque, New Mexico

